Join fellow University of South Carolina students and alumni and friends for a rally supporting stimulus funding for higher education Wednesday, April 1, 5:30 p.m. - 6:30 p.m. at the Statehouse steps (Gervais Street).

If you agree with the need to accept federal stimulus money, please call or e-mail the governor immediately with the following urgent message. Below is the governor's phone number and e-mail address:

Phone number: 803-734-2100

E-mail address: mark@gov.sc.gov

Our leaders have worked hard to protect the quality of our education. However, we fear that refusing the stimulus funds will have a drastic impact on our University and all of higher education. The University of South Carolina desperately needs the one-time funding that federal stimulus dollars will provide.
